

CIH Level 4 Certificate in Housing

About this course

The CIH Level 4 Certificate in Housing provides individuals with the technical knowledge and understanding across a broad range of housing practice at a management level. The qualification explores areas of housing policy, law and also professional practice which supports the development of their own personal growth and engagement in learning

This course is particularly suitable for:

- Individuals in/aspiring to a supervisory or management role in housing
- Learners that already have a level 3 qualification and/or experience of working in housing preferably at a supervisory/management level

The course is generally delivered over 10-12 months and aims to:

- Provide the knowledge and skills required to operate effectively at a management level in the housing sector
- Prepare learners for future study. Learners may wish to progress to the CIH Level 5 Diploma in Housing

What units are included?

To be awarded the qualification learners must successfully complete eight units. The eight units Kingdom Academy usually deliver are as follows:

- 1) Professional practice skills for housing
- 2) Housing Law
- 3) Financing for housing
- 4) Housing Policy
- 5) Managing people and change
- 6) Housing need, demand and supply

How we Deliver these Programmes

Our experience informs us that live workshops (usually teams based) are essential ingredients of our delivery model. We recommend workshops are held at approximately 3-4 weekly intervals to ensure learner momentum and engagement is maintained, whilst allowing sufficient time for participants to work on the qualification between sessions. The timing of these sessions also ensures less impact on workforce planning and business needs. We offer 'open' courses that run regularly around the country and 'in-house' organisation specific programmes (see In-house option)

In-house Option

We can (and frequently do) deliver this qualification in-house and can also offer a blend of face to face/remote workshops, based on overall numbers and client preferences. We can also investigate the possibility of growing learner numbers locally to support an in-house programme. This enables us to run a programme at a time and place to suit to support the organisation/learners and eliminate travel costs. We can also potentially offer some bespoke units for in-house cohorts.

Training with Kingdom Academy

When people train with us they have the reassurance that we have gained considerable experience in delivering housing qualifications for a wide variety of clients, over a number of years. These programmes are expertly delivered by our national team of specialist housing trainers:

- We can deliver CIH qualifications and training for employers on a national, regional or local basis as either in-house or open programmes
- We offer comprehensive support throughout the learner journey
- Our approach to client engagement is based upon partnership and transparency
- All tutors engaged to deliver respective programmes will be selected for their skills and background and have relevant housing practitioner experience
- Workshops will be practical and applied. Workshops will facilitate a delivery style centred on participant experiences, case studies and problem solving
- A flexible approach to delivery timetables and methods. Kingdom Academy will facilitate and deliver face to face and remote based workshops at times and locations to suit client needs, wherever possible
- We offer roll on, roll off programmes
- We have experience of working with and supporting learners from non-traditional educational backgrounds; those with English as a second language and those from disadvantaged communities - we recognise that each learner is different
- We secure repeat business from the vast majority of our clients
- We can offer flexibility on CIH units wherever possible (i.e. align closely with specific job roles)
